

Lillian Kirstein

Senior Vice President, General Counsel, and Secretary

In her role as General Counsel, Lillian is responsible for overseeing legal matters of the business as a whole, including those related to human resources, merchandising, logistics, acquisitions, real estate, fuel, information systems, trademarks, environmental and general corporate matters. Additionally, Lillian's group includes the company's government affairs team.

With over 30 years of experienced as a lawyer, Lillian has held multiple senior in-house positions at Lennox International Inc., Oxy, and Atlantic Richfield Corporation before joining 7-Eleven in 2012. She holds a Doctor of Jurisprudence from Baylor Law School and a Bachelor of Arts in English from Baylor University.

Contact: media@7-11.com